THE SAINT JOHN VIANNEY CENTER

AND

SAINT CHARLES BORROMEO SEMINARY

ANNOUNCE A JOINT CONFERENCE

“The Use of Psychology in Seminary Assessment and Formation Today”

A Necessary Conversation for Religious Formators and Psychologists

To mark the conclusion of the “Year of the Priest”
we will gather experts from both fields and seek the intercession of our patron Saint John Vianney.

Dates: June 14 to June 18, 2010

Location: Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary, Wynnewood PA

The recent Vatican statement, Guidelines for the Use of Psychology in Admission and Formation of Candidates to the Priesthood encourages a new dialogue among formators and psychologists. This joint conference will feature five days of presentations and training workshops designed to engage and further that dialogue.

- We invite formation personnel, seminary staff and faculty, as well as any others interested in learning more about the critical integration of psychology and formation today.
- All experience levels are welcome, as presentations will be directed to both veterans and newcomers to the field. There will be workshops and training offered to accommodate those seeking basic knowledge of psychology and its role in assessment and formation, as well as for those looking to deepen their understanding in light of their current programs and efforts.
- Experts from all related disciplines and professional roles are invited to speak. If you would like to suggest a particular presenter or topic be considered, please contact us as soon as possible.
