

Moral Issues in Catholic Health Care

Rev. Benedict M. Ashley, O.P., The Pope John Paul II Cultural Center, Washington, DC — Organ Donation and Transplantation

Rev. Romanus Cessario, O.P., Saint John’s Seminary, Brighton, MA — End of Life Issues and Euthanasia

Dr. Debra Day-Salvatore, Saint Peter’s University Hospital, New Brunswick, NJ — The Diagnosis and Treatment of Genetic Disorders

Dr. Eugene F. Diamond, The Linacre Institute of the Catholic Medical Association, Chicago, IL — Post-Rape Medications

Mr. Richard M. Doerflinger, Deputy Director, Secretariat for Pro-Life Activities, USCCB — Experimentation and Research on Human Subjects and Stem Cell Research

Dr. John S. Grabowski, Catholic University of America — Contraception, Sterilization and Abortion

Msgr. James J. Mulligan, Director of the Diocesan Office of Health Affairs, Diocese of Allentown — Catholic Identity and the Rationale for the Ethical and Religious Directives

Dr. Edmund D. Pellegrino, Georgetown University Medical Center — The Present and Future Importance of Catholic Health Care in the United States

Dr. Andrew T. Putnam, Georgetown University Medical Center — Pain Management and Palliative Care

Dr. Helen Watt, Director, the Linacre Centre for Healthcare Ethics, London, UK — The Ethics of Technological Reproduction

Catholic Moral Teaching in the Pontificate of John Paul II

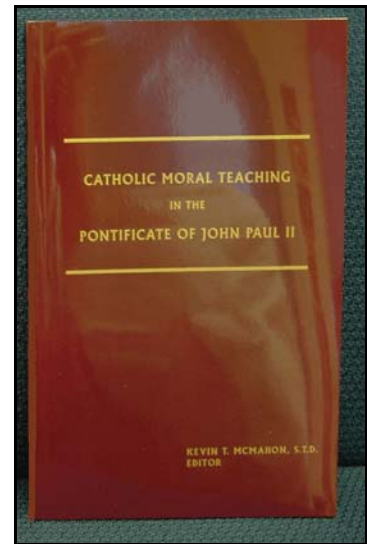

Cardinal George Pell, Archbishop of Sydney — Human Dignity, Human Rights and Moral Responsibility

Archbishop Angelo Amato, S.D.B., Secretary of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith — The Moral Imperatives of Living in Christ

Archbishop Timothy Broglio, Apostolic Nuncio in the Dominican Republic and Apostolic Delegate in Puerto Rico — Catholic Moral Teaching and the New Evangelization

Professor Robert George, Princeton University — The Geopolitical Implications of Catholic Social Teaching

Professor John Crosby, Franciscan University of Steubenville — Pope John Paul II’s Anthropology

ORDER FORM: Please complete and mail this form with your check or money order made payable to Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary. Send to The John Cardinal Krol Chair of Moral Theology, 100 East Wynnewood Road, Wynnewood, PA 19096. Free shipping within the United States. For credit card purchases and further information please call 610-785-6500.

(PRINT) NAME:	MORAL ISSUES IN CATHOLIC HEALTH CARE	CATHOLIC MORAL TEACHING IN THE PONTIFICATE OF JOHN PAUL II
ADDRESS:	Number ordered =	Number ordered =
CITY:	Amount due @ $14.95 =	Amount due @ $11.95 =
STATE:	SAVE: Both titles for $22.00.
ZIP:	Number of sets =	Amount due =